SONGWRITING WORKSHOPS FOR YOUNG ADULTS (13-17 YRS OLD)

We are offering two songwriting workshops these school holidays, interested teens aged 13-17yrs are welcome to attend one or both sessions. Places are limited, bookings essential to secure your place.

Rhythm Street Music - Thursday 14th April 10-11.30am

Learn to start writing songs with just four chords. In this workshop, participants will be introduced to the ukulele and how to play four chords that are commonly used in modern music. These four chords will have participants prepared to play 100s of songs and start their song writing journey. Facilitated by Bree Kavanagh, an experienced music educator from South West Victoria. Participants with prior learning can be given extension learning opportunities. This workshop prepares participants interested in songwriting for the lyric writing workshop with Leah Senior.

Leah Senior - Thursday 21st April 10-11.30am

An amazing opportunity for teens with a passion for songwriting to work with renowned songwriter Leah Senior to better understand the craft of lyric writing. Originally from Warrnambool, Leah Senior has released three albums on infamous indie label Flightless. She has toured extensively throughout Australian and Europe, performing at festivals including Golden Plains and Port Fairy Folk Festival and has been nominated for best solo artist, best song and best folk album in the Age Music Victoria awards. This 1.5 hr session is for those in the early stages of developing their songwriting skills.

Nature Bus - Storylines

Wednesday 13th April 10-11.30am

Get creative with nature, art and storytelling these school holidays!

Join Tania from The Nature Bus for a morning of fun and hands-on nature play in the library. Switch on your imagination as you create your unique clay creature, then gather ideas and inspiration from the natural world to bring it to life in your own original storyline! This activity is suitable for children aged 6-12 years.
