In Conversation With Michael Brissenden

Saturday 6 July 2pm

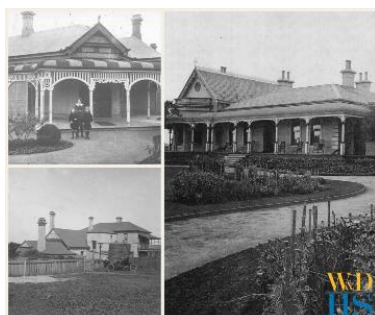

After a devastating wildfire in Jasper, California, a grim discovery in a shed initially seems like a tragic accident. However, it turns chilling when it's found the victim was deliberately locked in. Inspired by the 2020 Australian bushfires, Michael Brissenden's "Smoke" is a thrilling tale of crime and corruption, and a poignant story of friendship, personal history, and the challenges of small-town life.

EXPAND YOUR MIND - Hycel - Readyng Australia for the Energy Jobs of the Future

Thursday 18 July at 6.30 pm

Bookings required

As the hydrogen industry develops, Australia and the world need a skilled workforce. Deakin University's new Hycel hub in Warrnambool is leading this revolution by developing hydrogen education packages for schools, TAFEs, universities, and industry. Loren Tuck, Hycel's Education, Training and Industry Coordinator, will discuss the necessary knowledge, skills, and mindset for a future hydrogen workforce, emphasizing the need for collaborative and dynamic education. Join us for insights ahead of the public launch of the Deakin Hycel Hub later this year.

AUTHOR EVENT - In Conversation with Fiona Lowe

Tuesday 23 July at 6.30 pm

Bookings required

Hailed as a "gripping and thought-provoking mystery", The Accident proves that a small-town setting is fertile ground for big intrigue. Join us as we chat with ever popular bestselling author Fiona Lowe and delve into the dark secrets and moral-dilemma's of her latest novel.
