In Conversation with Samuel Ridley

author of "The Mahogany Ship"

Thursday 8 May at 6.30pm

Join us at the Library for a special conversation between local author Samuel Ridley and Maryanne Vagg, Service Manager of the Library & Learning Centre. Samuel will discuss his gripping new novel The Mahogany Ship—a sweeping tale that intertwines myth and truth across centuries, and the forgotten histories of Australia's southern coast.

The Australian Wool Industry

Tuesday 13 May at 2 pm

Join Peter Small for a thought-provoking talk on the past, present, and future of the Australian wool industry, blending personal history with professional insights into innovation and sustainability. Can wool adapt to a changing world, or is it fading like leather?

In partnership with

The Fabulous Campbells

Tuesday 27 May at 2 pm

In this talk, Dick Whitaker explores the Campbell family's legacy of speed, highlighting how Malcolm and Donald Campbell pushed the limits of land and water travel from the 1920s to the 1960s through their record-breaking, cutting-edge machines.
